IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF MONTANA
BUTTE DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,  Plaintiff,  vs.  LUTHER NORMAN WHALEY,  Defendant.	CR 22-2-BU-DLC  PLEA AGREEMENT
--	--

Pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, the United States of America, represented by Tara J. Elliott, Assistant United States Attorney for the District of Montana, and the Defendant, Luther Norman Whaley, and the Defendant's attorney, John Rhodes, have agreed upon the following:

 AUSA     DEF     ATTY     Date  0.30.22
JR

1. Scope: This plea agreement is between the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Montana and the Defendant. It does not bind any other federal, state, or local prosecuting, administrative, or regulatory authority, or the United States Probation Office.

2. Charges: The Defendant agrees to plead guilty to Count II of the indictment. Count II charges the crime of Brandishing a Firearm in Furtherance of a Crime of Violence, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §924(c)(1)(A)(ii) and carries a mandatory minimum punishment of seven years imprisonment, a $250,000 fine, five years of supervised release, and a $100 special assessment.

At the time of sentencing, if the Court accepts this plea agreement, the United States will move to dismiss Counts I and III of the indictment.

The Defendant also agrees to admit the forfeiture allegation contained in the Indictment. Specifically, the Defendant agrees to forfeit the following items:
1) Mossberg, model 88 Maverick, 12 gauge shotgun, serial number MV86571H; and (2) 7 rounds of 12 gauge ammunition.

3. Nature of the Agreement: The parties agree that this plea agreement will be governed by Rule 11(c)(1)(A) and (B), Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The Defendant acknowledges that the agreement will be fulfilled provided the United States: a) moves to dismiss, and the Court agrees to dismiss, Counts I and III of the indictment; and b) makes the recommendations provided below. The Defendant understands that if the agreement is accepted by the Court, there will not be an automatic right to withdraw the plea even if the Court does not accept or follow the recommendations made by the United States.

4. Admission of Guilt: The Defendant will plead guilty because the Defendant is guilty of the charge contained in Count II of the indictment. In pleading guilty, the Defendant acknowledges that:

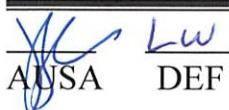

Count II:

First, the Defendant committed a crime of violence;
Second, the Defendant knowingly brandished a firearm; and
Third, the Defendant brandished the firearm “in furtherance of” the crime of violence.

5. Waiver of Rights by Plea:

- (a) The government has a right to use against the Defendant, in a prosecution for perjury or false statement, any statement given under oath during the plea colloquy.
- (b) The Defendant has the right to plead not guilty or to persist in a plea of not guilty.

(c) The Defendant has the right to a jury trial unless, by written waiver, the Defendant consents to a non-jury trial. The United States must also consent and the Court must approve a non-jury trial.

(d) The Defendant has the right to be represented by counsel and, if necessary, have the Court appoint counsel at trial and at every other stage of these proceedings.

(e) If the trial is a jury trial, the jury would be composed of 12 laypersons selected at random. The Defendant and the Defendant's attorney would have a say in who the jurors would be by removing prospective jurors for cause where actual bias or other disqualification is shown, or without cause by exercising peremptory challenges. The jury would have to agree unanimously before it could return a verdict of either guilty or not guilty. The jury would be instructed that the Defendant is presumed innocent, and that it could not convict unless, after hearing all the evidence, it was persuaded of the Defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

(f) If the trial is held by the judge without a jury, the judge would find the facts and determine, after hearing all of the evidence, whether or not the judge was persuaded of the Defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

(g) At a trial, whether by a jury or a judge, the United States would be required to present its witnesses and other evidence against the Defendant. The Defendant would be able to confront those government witnesses and the Defendant's attorney would be able to cross-examine them. In turn, the Defendant could present witnesses and other evidence. If the witnesses for the Defendant would not appear voluntarily, their appearance could be mandated through the subpoena power of the Court.

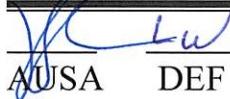

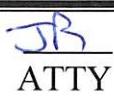

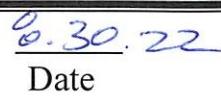

(h) At a trial, there is a privilege against self-incrimination so that the Defendant could decline to testify and no inference of guilt could be drawn from the refusal to testify. Or the Defendant could exercise the choice to testify.

(i) If convicted, and within 14 days of the entry of the Judgment and Commitment, the Defendant would have the right to appeal the conviction to the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals for review to determine if any errors were made that would entitle the Defendant to reversal of the conviction.

(j) The Defendant has a right to have the district court conduct the change of plea hearing required by Rule 11, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. By execution of this agreement, the Defendant waives that right and agrees to hold that hearing before, and allow the Rule 11 colloquy to be conducted by, the U.S.

Magistrate Judge, if necessary.

(k) If convicted in this matter, a Defendant who is not a citizen of the United States may be removed from the United States, denied citizenship, and denied admission to the United States in the future.

The Defendant understands that by pleading guilty pursuant to this agreement, the Defendant is waiving all of the rights set forth in this paragraph. The Defendant's attorney has explained those rights and the consequences of waiving those rights.

6. Recommendations: The United States will recommend the Defendant's offense level be decreased by two levels for acceptance of responsibility, pursuant to USSG §3E1.1(a), unless the Defendant is found to have obstructed justice prior to sentencing, pursuant to USSG §3C1.1, or acted in any way inconsistent with acceptance of responsibility. The United States will move for an additional one-level reduction, pursuant to USSG §3E1.1(b), if appropriate under the Guidelines. The parties reserve the right to make any other arguments at the time of sentencing. The Defendant understands that the Court is not bound by this recommendation.

7. Sentencing Guidelines: Although advisory, the parties agree that the U.S. Sentencing Guidelines must be applied, and a calculation determined, as part of the protocol of sentencing to determine what sentence will be reasonable.

8. Waiver of Appeal of the Sentence – General: The Defendant understands the law provides a right to appeal and collaterally attack the sentence imposed in this case. 18 U.S.C. § 3742(a); 28 U.S.C. §§ 2241, 2255. Based on the concessions made by the United States, the Defendant knowingly waives any right to appeal or collaterally attack any aspect of the sentence, including conditions of probation or supervised release. This waiver includes challenges to the constitutionality of any statute of conviction and arguments the admitted conduct does not fall within any statute of conviction. This waiver does not prohibit the right to pursue a collateral challenge alleging ineffective assistance of counsel.

9. Voluntary Plea: The Defendant and the Defendant's attorney acknowledge that no threats, promises, or representations have been made to induce the Defendant to plead guilty, and that this agreement is freely and voluntarily endorsed by the parties.

10. Detention/Release After Plea: The Defendant acknowledges that his detention will continue upon conviction.

11. Breach: If the Defendant breaches the terms of this agreement, or commits any new criminal offenses between signing this agreement and sentencing, the U.S. Attorney's Office is relieved of its obligations under this agreement, but the Defendant may not withdraw the guilty plea.

12. Entire Agreement: Any statements or representations made by the United States, the Defendant, or defense counsel prior to the full execution of this plea agreement are superseded by this plea agreement. No promises or representations have been made by the United States except as set forth in writing in this plea agreement. This plea agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties. Any term or condition which is not expressly stated as part of this plea agreement is not to be considered part of the agreement.
